

TALKING POINTS

A / D / U

1. It's impossible for other people to tell if you are listening.
2. Talking is more important than listening
3. Group activity can be good for learning.
4. Listening and thinking are different things
5. Learning to listen and collaborate well with other people is important.
6. If you think someone is wrong about something, it is more important to tell them right away than to listen to their reasoning.
7. Everyone can learn to be part of a learning conversation.

TALKING POINTS

A / D / U

1. It's impossible for other people to tell if you are listening.
2. Talking is more important than listening
3. Group activity can be good for learning.
4. Listening and thinking are different things
5. Learning to listen and collaborate well with other people is important.
6. If you think someone is wrong about something, it is more important to tell them right away than to listen to their reasoning.
7. Everyone can learn to be part of a learning conversation.